MEN'S LEADER

Greetings Pescadores,

2025 is gone and 2026 is before us! What are your plans for this year? I pray that you are planning to serve on a Tres Dias weekend. Hopefully, your plans include sponsoring a candidate as well. As you recall the changes God made in you on your Tres Dias, I am sure the urge to pass that blessing on still burns within you.

Just A reminder, Pescadore Orientation every two years is now a requirement, not just a suggestion, to sponsor or serve.

Bruce King, Men's Leader

Women's LEADER

Jesus understands that it doesn't do any good to preach a gospel of Grace and then have a Critical Spirit towards others around us. It doesn't help people to tell them that God Loves them and then ignore their needs. We are called to show the LOVE of Jesus to the people around us, and then they will know we really believe in God's love. I am so excited about our Team Meetings beginning on February 7th. Help me Pray for Carrie, the Team, and Candidates that will be coming in April. What a Weekend it is going to be. Help us to Love one another as God has loved us, so that we may be a Witness in your Kingdom. May we be open to the people that we encounter in our lives and be a Faithful model of God's Love. Let me leave you with this thought as you Journey on this Life. When you want God to knock on your door, You should go and knock on God's door.

Blessings,
Janet Lancaster

TREASURER

Greetings Community!

How are those New Year's resolutions coming along? Aren't you glad there is grace?

We are well into 2026, the teams for weekend #71 are forming and team meetings will begin soon. So, what do you think is on my mind? Yes, you're correct its Team Fees!

When you sign up to serve on a team you get the privilege to pay for your service to the Candidates and the Community. I know we joke about it but it truly is the same model that Jesus used... He paid to serve us and have our lives changed. He gave His best for our worst... the very model we should follow while serving on a weekend.

Please bring your team fees to the first team meeting willingly and without hesitation... give it your best.

With love and blessings,
Sean

Women's Rector #71

As Women's NFTD #71 continues to unfold, my heart keeps returning to the quiet invitation God gives us to rest in what He has already promised. In seasons of preparation, it's easy to feel stretched or uncertain, but His promises never shift. They are steady, faithful, and meant to be held onto with trust, especially when we can't yet see the full picture.

Standing on His promises often looks like choosing faith over fear, peace over worry, and trust over control. It's allowing God to lead each step, knowing that He is already at work long before we see the fruit. I am continually reminded that this weekend is not built on our efforts alone, but on His faithfulness and His perfect timing.

This weekend is being covered in prayer, and as team meetings begin on February 7th, I humbly ask that you continue to lift me, the leadership, the team, and the candidates before the Lord. Pray for peace over every heart, clarity in every step, unity among the team, and for each woman to feel the gentle reassurance of God's presence as she learns to stand firmly on His promises.

Thank you for being a community that prays so faithfully and loves so deeply. Your prayers are a true gift, and I am incredibly grateful as we walk this journey together, trusting God with every detail of Women's NFTD #71.

Men Rector #71

Brothers and Sisters,

This journey keeps getting closer as we near the first team meeting for Men's # 71 on February 19th. I am reminded looking over these past months of seeing many events unfold, and keep hearing "Prepare the way of the Lord". We have prayed to Him for the guidance, strength, and direction for His weekend to unfold in our lives.

God is good ALL the time, and ALL the time God is good! I am very humbled by the amount of applications of those who have submitted and answered the call to serve, and to be a blessing to others. Thank you for those able to serve, and with that said I am still looking for a few more that may pray about considering serving this weekend to complete the men's team. Please prayerfully consider sponsoring as well.

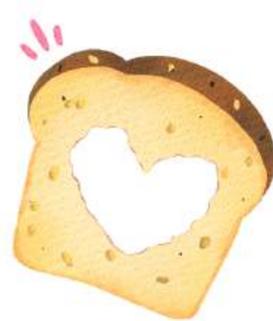

I am thankful for the prayers over the past several months, and we have been greatly encouraged in living the theme this weekend of Your Gratitude Determines Your Altitude. It is an exciting time knowing that Jehovah Jireh will persevere everytime, and the challenges we face in life. Remember to make a choice to worship Him, and give Him the glory even in challenges and storms lifting praises to His name! We are thankful for this community, and look forward to trusting that His good and perfect will come to pass in these candidates, team, and weekend!

Food Couple

Serving as the Food Couple is a simple but meaningful way for us to love on this community.

Sharing meals creates moments of rest, connection, and fellowship that support all God is doing during the weekend. We're grateful to serve alongside the Secretariat and to play a small part in caring for those who step away from everyday life to encounter Him.

“They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts.”

— Acts 2:46

As we look ahead, please join us in prayer for Weekend #71—for the leadership, the team, and every heart God is already preparing. We are thankful for each of you and the opportunity to serve together in this beautiful ministry.

PESCADORE ORIENTATION COUPLE

Hello Tres Dias Family,

We had an amazing turnout for our first PO of the year, with a total of 92 in attendance! Thank you all for taking time out of your Saturday to join us and to support what makes such a difference in all of our lives. Your presence, commitment, and hearts for Tres Dias do not go unnoticed. We are already looking forward to the Fall PO and are beyond excited for our upcoming Rectors. We are lifting you up in prayer as you seek God's voice and direction for the teams He has uniquely designed for each weekend. We pray over the teams—that they will serve with hearts full of gratitude, unity, and humility. And we pray over this Tres Dias community—that as you walk faithfully in your commitment to the Lord and to our Rectors, God will continue to move mightily in and through you.

“Commit your way to the Lord; trust in Him and He will act.”

Palanca Couple

Weekend #71 is 9 or so weeks away. Remember you do not have to do something alone, utilize your reunion groups, other Tres Dias friends, if you are serving on the weekend, you can do something with your section. The possibilities are endless. Also, please do not feel pressured to do something because you always have, or you are reading this. Pray first!! He will help lead you to what will bless the Candidates. Some tips and thoughts below:

Be thoughtful, think about what meant most to you on your weekend whether it was a bookmark with a bible verse or a favorite snack

If you aren't serving you can still write a General Palanca letter. They can be emailed to

PROCUREMENT COUPLE

The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. Instead he is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.

2 Peter 3:9 NIV

Thank you, Father, for including me in your great plan. When I think about your greatness, when I contemplate all you have done to set this world in motion, I'm awed you would think to include me in your plans.

NEWSLETTER COUPLE

“Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.”

— John 15:13

Jesus’ love is not distant or conditional—it is personal, sacrificial, and constant. He walked among the hurting, welcomed the forgotten, and touched those others turned away from. His love met people exactly where they were, yet never left them unchanged. On the cross, Jesus showed us the fullest picture of love: a love willing to suffer so others could be healed, forgiven, and made whole. Even today, His love reaches into our fears, our weariness, and our doubts, whispering, “You are not alone. You are deeply loved.” When we receive the love of Jesus, it flows through us. We become more patient, more compassionate, and more willing to serve others with grace—just as He serves us.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, thank You for loving us so completely and unconditionally. Help us to rest in Your love and reflect it in our words, our actions, and our care for others. Teach us to love as You love—freely, gently, and with open hearts. Amen.

Weekend Couple

Hello everyone....

What a life right? Survived the holiday season! Praise the lord. Guys I always try to lead by example. The past few years have been chaotic.... I'm sure I'm not alone. Our enemy loves to cause us chaos and confusion. But through my relationship with Jesus I find myself strongly centered. Took me a min. In today's society our enemy is strongly after our identity. God recently showed me this. If you read Galatians chapter 1 verses 1-10 Paul introduces himself. Telling us who Paul is. Paul speaks of false gospels! Often times society wants to label us or put in a box pertaining to what job or career we have.

"False gospels"- Dude is a farrier! So and so is a teacher! A welder! A pastor! I've been on a journey with Jesus the past few years and I'm here to testify to you the true gospel!

You're saved by Jesus! You're a servant leader! This identity.... This is the true gospel! Identity with Jesus. We are created in his image! Don't let our enemy distract you from the truth. Do not fear transparency. Be real. Love each other and serve! Glorify God in ALL you do!

Love ya'll.

Pre-Weekend Couple

Happy February Tres Dias Fam,

Things are moving right along. We are so excited to get so many applications sent in for candidates on NFTD # 71, With that being said let's go over a couple of things to keep in mind Who Should I Sponsor to go through a Tres Dias Weekend? Remember it does not matter what denomination they are as long as they are Christian. This movement is for Christians; it is to build up Christian leaders in our local churches. Have you prayed about the person or couple you want to experience this wonderful life changing experience we have all had. Yes, we want everyone to get to have a closer walk with Jesus but have we asked Holy Spirit if this is who He has in mind for this weekend. Are they Leaders in their local church. Are they living a life that is pleasing to Christ. Do they follow Biblical principles in their life styles. Tres Dias is not to fix people it is to deepen their relationship with Christ a relationship that they are already pursuing and wanting to get closer to our Daddy God. Please pray before you even ask. Wait for the prompting of Holy Spirit, please, consider who and where they are in their relationship with Daddy God. We love you! Can't wait to get more applications
