Simple Truth

You are loved! Deeply and completely—perfectly loved!

Surely you've heard those words before. Perhaps even said them to yourself or to cheer on another.

But....Do you believe it—really believe it is true? About you? Do you feel it—deep within, do you feel intimately and magnificently loved? Do you recognize it—or are you searching for affection and fulfillment? Do you live it—are you walking as one who is wanted; with a smile on your face and head held high?

The simple truth is...God loves you!

He loves who you are today as much as when He created you. He loved you as you were being wounded and emotionally injured as a child growing up in this evil, hateful place. He loves you in the midst of hardship and while enduring injustices. He loves every inch of your being—every hair upon your head.

HE. LOVES. YOU!

Regardless....Of your questions, your doubts, your struggle to trust Him completely. Of your failures, your regrets, your turning from grace to embrace sin. Of your abilities, your giftings, your wisdom and knowledge of Truth. Of your inhibitions, your weaknesses, your fear in letting go to let Him have control.

His love is not measured by what you do, what you say, what you know or even how you live. His love is unchanged whether you are successful in all you do or if you fail. His love does not increase as you work out of your strengths and then decrease when you fall back on your weakness.

No!

God loved you before you ever took breath, before He even placed you in your mother's womb. From the moment His thoughts created and formed you in His mind—you. were. loved! With an incomparable passion that remains—unchanged!

So why is the simple unbelievable? Because we've lived all our life believing we are not enough—not good enough, not smart enough, not pretty enough, not worthy enough. Experiences assault our worth. Injustices leave scars. In competition and comparison we often fail. And when we are hurting or when we fall short we listen to the Adversary's lies.

God's character and His promises are as unending as they are unbending! They will not change on account of you, my friend!

You are lavishly loved while being purposely pursued!

North Florida Tres Dias Fall 2011 Weekends

Love...

Although the fall weekends are four months away, the upcoming rectors, Scott Sapp and Amy Sadler are already in the process of praying over team applications and listening to God as He selects the teams of both the men's and women's weekend #45. If you are considering serving on one of the upcoming weekends, and have not already turned in an application to do so, please fill one out and forward it on to Scott or Amy. Applications can be downloaded from the website • www.nftd.org

Hope...

If you find that you are unable to serve on the team of one of the weekends, there are several other opportunities to serve. Prayer is an essential part of the weekends. There can never be too much prayer coverage when it comes to the Tres Dias weekends. The rectors, the team, the candidates and the spiritual directors and all of their families covet the prayers of the community both prior to and throughout the weekends.

Faith...

If you are unable to serve the weekend, and enjoy cooking and serving, there is an opportunity to help prepare and serve the meal prior to the serenade. This is a new opportunity that has been initiated to help take some of the stress off of the kitchen chas and what is already a very busy day for them. If you are interested in serving in this area, please contact Bill Pafford and let him know. He would love to talk with you and make arrangements with you to help serve those who come to serenade. billandtracypafford@yahoo.com

June 2011

Other ways to be involved on the weekend are serenade, palanca, set-up and take-down, send-off, closing and sponsorship. If sponsoring a candidate, please know your candidate well and pray over them prior to sending in their application. The Tres Dias weekends are intended to build leadership within the church, and while God is in the "fix-it" business and can, and does, show up and show out on the weekends, please be mindful of it's mission. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact one of the secretariat members at any time.
