WELCOME / LIGHTING OF CANDLE / OPENING PRAYER / DEVOTION / COMMUNION

Chairman, Andy Fowler called the meeting to order at 6:00 p.m.

Kyle Moye shared devotion. Psalm 107:1 "Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever. Kyle reminded us to be thankful for everything we have in our lives. Remember what the people in the community mean to us. We assume they may know but they

Mission: "To bring Christians to a closer, more personal walk with their Lord Jesus Christ and encourage them to Christian leadership and apostolic action in their environments."

The sequela was on November 8th at First Baptist Church in Thomasville, Georgia. There were 125 in attendance. There will not be a sequela in December.

5. Other Member Reports

- Food Couple - Carrie said they have scheduled a menu meeting with Rectors in January.
- Newsletter couple - Aaron and Iris were not present. Newsletters need to be in by the 25th.
- Weekend Couple - Andy mentioned that Vic Parramore fixed the old sound board so now we have a backup.
- PO - Becky had a great meeting with Wayne and Brittani Stallings. A copy of the manual was given to them. She advised she will walk with them for six months to help if needed. Rodney Whitfield told Becky what an outstanding job she has done.
- Procurement Couple - Nothing at this time

OLD BUSINESS

1. Updated Books for Sections - Kristin was not present. Andy advised that all the Heads books have been gone through. The books should be completed at the beginning of 2026.

NEW BUSINESS

1. New Locations - Andy advised everyone that Crossroads in Beachton was now available for team meetings if we choose to have them there. Felisha Mitchell mentioned that ALBB was available if needed but Crossroads did seem to be a central location for everyone that has to travel. Becky made a motion to have the meetings at Crossroads beginning in January 2026 until December 2026. Jessica Whitfield second the motion. All agreed.

SECRETARIAT SPECIAL GROUP PRAYER PALANCA TIME FOR OTHER COMMUNITIES AND WEEKENDS AND CLOSING PRAYER.
